

CANDIDATES' PROFILES

POSITION	NAMES & PICTURES	PROFILES
CHAIRMAN	 Mr. Frank Aigbogun	Mr. Frank Aigbogun is a reputable journalist and an astute business manager at BusinessDay which he co-founded in 2001. He has also worked at the Guardian and Vanguard Newspapers where he rose to become the editor. Mr. Aigbogun was a member of the Vision 2010 committee appointed by the Federal government to draw a long-term economic vision for Nigeria and he served as a council member of the National competitiveness council. An immediate past president of the Lagos Business School alumni association, Mr. Aigbogun is a council member of the Nigerian British Chamber of Commerce and a director of the Nigerian Economic Group, NESG. He holds an honorary fellowship of the Institute of Directors Nigeria.
VICE-CHAIRMAN	 Mr. Emeka Nweze	Emeka Nweze is a seasoned Entrepreneur. He is undeniably an admirable building and construction executive and an inspirational leader with a working career, which spans over 2 decades during which he has worked in several capacities leading in various critical measures. Emeka Nweze studied Building and Construction at the University of Lagos from where he proceeded on to gain his Project Management certification and then became involved in numerous core ventures focused on achieving advancement in the Building Construction space. These ventures impelled in the establishment of Floorenzo (WA) Limited, a construction company that has worked with various reputable organizations in the private and public sectors respectively, where Floorenzo facilitated the rolling out of various bank branches across Nigeria and developing various private turnkey projects.

		Emeka Nweze’s passion for construction took him to birth Greenstone Developments limited in April 2015 which is a company focused on developing medium and low-cost housing in Nigeria and Ghana, West Africa. Emeka Nweze holds strategic responsibilities amongst others in overseeing the development of various real estate projects both here in Nigeria and Ghana and sits on the board of Zircon Energy Limited and Panda Properties Limited. Furthermore, he serves as a member of the utility committee in Banana Island, Ikoyi, and was instrumental in the selection of IPNX as the preferred Internet service provider to the entire estate. Emeka Nweze is a member of The Lagos Lawn Tennis Club, Ikoyi Club, The Lagos Polo Club, The Apapa Boat Club, and The Lagos Jet Ski Club. He possesses exceptional interpersonal skills; he is Known amongst many attributes to be a solution being. He is happily married with 2 children.
VICE-CHAIRMAN	 DR. Ayodele Abina	Dr. Ayo Abina is a distinguished Professional, with varied experiences spanning 30 years in the major sectors of Nigeria’s Economy including, Banking & Finance, Management Consulting, Tourism & Education. His career path started in Banking and Finance, with 27years of experience, starting as a Graduate Trainee and rising to the level of Executive Director, before disengaging in 2020. In the 16th year of my Banking Career, he was promoted to the position of General Manager, a testament to his leadership skills, industry, brilliance, professionalism, dedication, and innovation. He is a senior member of the Nigeria Institute of Bankers (Hcib). In March 2020, he founded AACS, an international professional service firm that aims through disruption to activate out-of-the-box thinking through roads less traveled and allow businesses to thrive. AACS is into Consulting, Research, Public Policy, Economy, Innovation, Entrepreneurial Development, and principal investments. The Fortnightly Newsletter - ‘AACS Fortnightly’ has been acknowledged as a valuable tool, assisting Policy Makers in Government and Enterprises with decisions. In the tourism sector, he led a team to establish "The Lekki Coliseum (TLC)" the premier luxury lifestyle destination resort in Lagos that plays in the Events, Hospitality, and Entertainment industries of the economy. He also has an interest in other sectors of the economy such as Aviation. He possesses sound academic qualifications which include a First Degree in Sociology, a Postgraduate degree in banking & Finance, and an MBA with a specialty in Finance and Management. He has attended several professional leadership Courses in some of the renowned business schools such as the Senior Management Program (SMP) in Sandton South Africa, Advance Management Program at Insead Business School Fontainebleau, France where I am an alumnus. I have also attended entrepreneurial Courses at Harvard, MIT, and London Business school amongst others.

		He was awarded D.Sc. Honoris Causa in banking from the Lead City University Ibadan, a frontline private tertiary institution where I helped its foundation, and a D.Sc. Honoris Causa in Economics from his Alma Mata, the Ekiti State University. He has served at various times with distinction on the boards of public-spirited Organisations like the Lagos State Security Trust Fund (LSSTF) and Oyo State Security Trust Fund (OSSTF) with duties of raising funds and supporting the infrastructure elements of law enforcement to enhance security. I served as Chairman of the board of the Cocoa Product, Ile Oluji (CPIL) one of the country s foremost cocoa processing and export companies in Nigeria.
GENERAL SECRETARY	 Mrs. Fehintola Bada	FEHINTOLA OIZA BADA Mrs. Fehintola Bada has diverse and rich multi-sector work experience gained from managing a full spectrum of HR functions and programs in global multinationals and indigenous organizations with over 17years of experience. Her experience spans various industries such as the financial sector, service industry, manufacturing, pharmaceutical, and telecoms. She has worked with Global Multinational Companies and strong indigenous companies such as Standard Chartered Bank, GlaxoSmithKline, IBFCAgusto, IHS Towers, etc. She left the corporate world to become an entrepreneur about 6years ago and set up a business in the hospitality industry. She has successfully implemented the skills learned from my corporate days into running her own business. She was elected to serve in the 2020 – 2022 EXCO in the same capacity that She is running for, and she is proud to state that serving alongside my fellow EXCO members, not only have we improved the state of the estate, but we have also implemented structures and processes and commenced several projects. Some of my achievements in this role include – implementing policies and processes to drive performance, a fit for growth organogram, review of BIPORAL talent pool, etc. We intend to embed these changes over the next 2 years as well as complete the projects (Office & gatehouse, Roads, improved water supply, Clannit, etc.) we have committed to.

LEGAL ADVISER

Mr. Adebayo Oyagbola

Adebayo Adegunle Oyagbola is a seasoned legal practitioner with 40 years of experience in active legal practice, he obtained both an LL. B Hons degree and an LL.M degree from University College, London. He is accomplished in advanced Company Law, Intellectual Property, Carriage of Goods by Sea, and Marine Insurance.

He understands the internal workings of public sector organizations having worked and prosecuted cases for the legal section of the Nigerian Customs and excise. He was also a technical expert in the firm of Bentley Edu & co. where he was engaged in commercial litigation, corporate transactions, and intellectual property practice.

He has written several published articles on Intellectual Property, Telecommunications Law, Banking, and General Procedure. For several years, he lectured at diverse seminars on Banking litigation and lenders' liability.

Adebayo Adegunle Oyagbola was born on 8 August 1958 to the family of late Chief Thomas Adedokun Oyagbola, a legal practitioner, and Mrs. Adenike Egun Oyagbola, the first female Nigerian Minister of Cabinet Rank between 1979 and 1982. He hails from Yewa North, Ogun state where, several years ago, he was bestowed with the chieftaincy title Apagun-Pote of Igan Alade. He is married to Mrs. Aminatu Abdullahi Oyagbola (Nee Atta) with three children.

He was a member of the Ogun State Law Revision/Review Committee for twelve years from 1999, and he was on the 5-man committee that prepared the Laws of Ogun State 2006. He also served as a member of the Ogun State Judicial Service Commission for three years. Internationally, he has lectured for the World Intellectual Property Organisation (WIPO) on copyright and confidential information.

He founded Oyagbola Chambers in 1987 and has managed it since 1989. In 1997, he led Oyagbola Chambers in acting as solicitors to Standard Chartered Bank for the offer for sale of shares by which it completed its divestment from First Bank of Nigeria Plc. It was the biggest offer for sale that had been done on the Nigerian Stock Exchange at the time. He has led several other corporate structuring and restructuring engagements.

Professionally, he is a member of the Nigerian Bar Association, the International Bar Association, and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. Socially, he is a member of the Metropolitan Club, was Commodore of the Lagos Motor Boat Club from 2003-2005, and, for several years, the Secretary of the University College London Alumni Association Nigeria.

His mission is the provision of services to society using cutting-edge practices and tools in the pursuit of meaningful and quantifiable goals that will make a difference in and improve the lives of as many people as possible.

FINANCE SECRETARY	 Mr. Patrick Ebuka Ilodiana	Patrick ILODIANYA is the Co-Founder and MD/CEO of SFS Capital Nigeria Limited (Formerly Skye Financial Services Limited) an Investment Banking Institution. He has over 2 decades of experience in Finance spanning: Investment Banking; Real Estate; Fintech and Accounting. Prior to co-founding SFS Capital, Patrick spent most of his career in Investment Banking & Trust Company (currently StanbicIBTC). He currently Manages the Financial and Investment decisions of 2 multiple award-winning Real Estate Investment Trusts listed on the Nigerian Stock Exchange. Patrick is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and an alumnus of Harvard Business School.
TREASURER	 Mr. Oladunjoye M. Olusola	Sola has over 15 years of Corporate Finance, Investment, and Corporate Banking experience. He is the founder / CEO of Aigle Limited. Sola was previously with Standard Chartered Bank (SCB) in the Corporate & Institutional Banking division; where he spent about 8 years, initially working as a Principal in the West Africa Client Solutions team, and then with the Coverage team. Before joining SCB, he worked at Renaissance Capital, an emerging market-focused investment bank, in the Mergers & Acquisition (M&A) and Equity Capital Markets team, focused largely on the Financial Services sector. He was part of the team that closed landmark M&A transactions in Nigeria. Sola also worked with KPMG Professional Services (Transactions and Corporate Finance division), as well as ARM Investment Managers (Principal & Proprietary Investments division).

SOCIAL/WELFARE SECRETARY

Mrs. Jane Ada Umeh

Mrs. Jane Ada Umeh is a Business Entrepreneur with 20 years of top management experience.

She has served at various levels in the workplace and is presently The Executive Director, Admin, and Operations at Allied Lubricants and Chemicals Limited, Lagos.

A passionate and Seasoned Counsellor, Jane has a heart that wants to keep everyone in her sphere of influence in a good place.

Her social skills span across various cadres of life from work, Church, social groups, and beyond.

A devoted wife and mother of 3 young adult children, Jane pursued her goals with passion and presently coordinates a fitness club in Banana Island.

PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER

Mr. Abidemi Oluwagbenga
Sonoiki

Mr. Sonoiki is currently the Honorary Consular General for Grenada in Nigeria. Prior to this appointment, he was the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Noik Energy Limited, an indigenous Oil Marketing Company with almost 15 Years of track record in downstream and mid-stream businesses.

An ex-banker, he was a Deputy General Manager/Group Treasurer at Heritage Bank Plc until July 2016 while he also held positions as Assistant Vice-President II at First City Monument Bank Plc (FCMB) after honing his skills with the likes of Sterling Capital, Marina International Bank (now Access Bank Plc), and Equity Bank.

During his career in banking, he attended both local and international training programmes and conferences, including Lagos Business School, Goldman Sachs, London, and the Prestigious Harvard Business School, the USA to mention but a few. He is an Associate of the Chartered Banker Institute, Scotland; an Associate of the Chartered Institute Bankers of Nigeria (ACIB). A Fellow, of the Institute of Credit & Collection Management (FICCM) and a Fellow of the Institute of Credit Administration (FICA).

Mr. Sonoiki is a graduate of Business & Business Communications (BA) from the University of Portsmouth, United Kingdom with two post-graduate degrees in Business Administration (MBA) from Adekunle Ajasin University, Nigeria, and Bangor University, Wales, United Kingdom respectively. He has a background in Accountancy having obtained a Higher National Diploma in Accountancy from The Federal Polytechnic, Offa, Kwara State.

		A great and dynamic leader with a tested and monumental track record of focused implementation of ideas. Mr. Sonoiki is proactive and most importantly result driven. He has a very strong eye for calculated risk, management, and mitigation.
--	--	---

Mr. Sonoiki enjoys meeting people, playing chess, and traveling. He is very principled and a strong advocate of equity and justice.